FICFE
INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL OF FEMALE CHOIRS IN LATIN AMERICA
Second Edition FICFE Composition Contest
in tribute to María Granillo
- Mexican composer -

Original Works and Popular Music Arrangements for Female Choir and Children's Choir

The Contest is aimed at composers and arrangers with no age limit.

Its main objective is to promote the work composed for the voices of female choral groups, stimulating the composition of original works and arrangements, which present innovative proposals, exploration of vocal and expressive resources, the relationship between text and music.

In this second edition, the FICFE Composition Contest opens a special category to children's choirs, thus enriching the repertoire for equal voices.

The contest will consist of three categories:

Category A – Original composition from 3 female voices a cappella or with instrumental accompaniment.

- ✓ Prize: certificate, premiere, recording and edition of a digital booklet together with winning and / or mentioned works, chosen by the jury.
- ✓ Mention/s: Certificate and edition of a digital booklet together with winning and/or mentioned works, chosen by the jury.

Category B – Choral Arrangement of Popular Music from 3 female voices a cappella or with instrumental accompaniment.

- ✓ Prize: certificate, premiere, recording and edition of a digital booklet together with winning and / or mentioned works, chosen by the jury.
- ✓ Mention/s: Certificate and edition of a digital booklet together with winning and/or mentioned works, chosen by the jury.

Category C – Original Composition or Choral Arrangement of Popular Music for children's choir up to 3 voices a cappella or with instrumental accompaniment.

- ✓ Prize: certificate, premiere, recording and edition of a digital booklet together with winning and / or mentioned works, chosen by the jury.
- ✓ Mention/s: Certificate and edition of a digital booklet together with winning and/or mentioned works, chosen by the jury.

REGISTRATION PROCESS

The presentation of the work must be made via email to ficfe.concurso@gmail.com, and the deadline for delivery will be Wednesday June 30, 2021.

Contestants must pay an amount of USD 25 (twenty-five US dollars) for each work submitted. The registration payment can be paid through PayPal (enabling the possibility of paying in the equivalent value in any international currency). The registration fee is non-refundable. Participants who are music students at an institution will have, for each work they present, a 50% discount on registration. To access this benefit, they must send a regular student certificate (valid at the time of enrollment) from the corresponding institution.

Each participant must create a new email account under their pseudonym. Contestants who wish to send more than one work must send an email from a different pseudonym and proof of payment for each work they submit.

The means of payment are the following:

Via PayPal having two options:

- a) Those who have a PayPal account should write to ficfe.argentina@gmail.com (please use a real mail –not the alias created for the contest–) to notify that you are going to sign in the Contest. Then you will pay by accessing the following link:
